Privacy policy

By using this site, you agree the use of the personal information described in this privacy policy. You and the Academy for Multidisciplinary Neurotraumatology (AMN) agree to abide by the Privacy Policy.

About us

AMN takes the privacy of all users of its websites very seriously. This privacy policy describes how your personal information will be treated. Our privacy policy will be periodically reviewed and improved and you should check this page for the latest policies. If you would like more information or have any comments regarding our Privacy Policy or any other aspect of our site or service, please contact us at office@brain-amn.org.

Access to the AMN website and the use by all visitors are governed by the AMN Terms and Conditions, which you must read and accept as a condition for the use of the AMN sites.

Operator

The operator for the personal data collected through the AMN website can be contacted at office@brain-amn.org. The operator is the person or organization that controls the purposes for which your personal data are used and the means used to process and protect that information.

What information do we collect?

In order to provide you with our services, we may collect and keep a record of your personal information on the AMN website. This information may include general information, such as your address, IP, date/time of access, details of the files or pages consulted, the page from which the access took place, the top level of the domain (.com, .ch, etc.) the Internet browser and the operating system used.

We can retain the details of the transactions or payments you make on AMN.

We can also use cookies (see below).

How will we use your information?

The data collected from the use of the AMN website by any user are kept for statistical purposes.

We will usually store your personal information for the period you use any AMN website and for a reasonable period after you have stopped using it. Please let us know when you permanently cease using all AMN sites. We reserve the right to keep the information for a longer period, if necessary, for example, to investigate violations of our terms of use.

Cookies

Together with many other website operators, we may use standard technology called "cookies" on this site. Cookies are small pieces of information stored by your browser on your computer hard disk. Our cookies allow us to identify you and store information about the services you use during your visits. Most browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually change your browser to prevent cookies from being stored. However, if you disable cookies, this will limit the service we can provide. Make sure your browser cookie settings are the way you want them to be.

Transfer and use your information to and from other countries and third parties

The server on which the AMN website is located may be outside the country you access this website from, and may be outside your country of residence. Due to the way information is transferred over the Internet, information exchanged between you and AMN may be routed through other servers in different countries.

Your information may be transferred across the borders of the country, possibly in countries where data protection laws offer a lower level of protection than in your country of residence. AMN uses third party service providers, for example to handle user support requests and to allow the provision of such services, you may need to transfer personal data, including an automatic email transfer to those providers. By submitting any personal information to AMN, you agree this transfer. You should also be aware that since your articles and (depending on your privacy settings) your profile information are visible to users in almost all countries of the world, this means that your data is necessarily transferred to these countries.

Security

We take the security of personal information seriously. We have security procedures in place to protect our visitor databases against loss and misuse and only to allow access to them when necessary and then in accordance with strict guidelines regarding the use of personal information contained therein.

The AMN site may contain links to other websites. We have no control over and are not responsible for the content, privacy policies or security of these sites. We recommend that you check the privacy and security policies of each site you visit.
